Hello everyone! We're introducing a new feature: periodic updates on people, events, and projects at the Living New Deal. We welcome your comments and feedback.

- Gabe Milner, LND Manager

Dr. Richard Wolff, "Another New Deal?"

Our annual Fall benefit takes place on October 29th at the Berkeley City Club. Rick Wolff, Economist and Founder of Democracy at Work, will deliver a talk entitled, "Another New Deal?: Answers to Capitalism’s Crisis Today." Wolff is author of Democracy at Work and Capitalism Hits the Fan, and a popular radio commentator. There will be a reception beforehand to meet Dr. Wolff and the Living New Deal team. See our Eventbrite page for details.

Living New Dealer of the Month: Brent McKee

Brent McKee, our Mid-Atlantic associate, has been a valuable contributor to the Living New Deal for years. He writes a fantastic blog, "New Deal of the Day", has done key research on New Deal films, has written guidelines...
Making Our Website Bigger & Better

Our webmaster, Lisa Thompson, has added a new Advanced Search Function to the website, making it easier for people to use our wealth of information on New Deal sites and history.

Brent McKee has created a guide to all New Deal programs, 58 in total. This is a unique resource for people searching for information on the New Deal—and trying to sort through the famous 'alphabet soup' of laws and agencies.

Stories Wanted: Henry Alsberg

Sue Rubenstein DeMasi, Professor of Library Services at Suffolk Community College, is writing a biography of Henry Alsberg, WPA Federal Writers' Project Director from 1935-1939. If you have any personal recollections, family anecdotes, or photos of Alsberg, please contact Prof. DeMasi at demasis@sunysuffolk.edu.

* Recorded in 1932 by Don Redman and His Orchestra, with the assistance of Bill Robinson, "Doin' the New Low Down" was a hit record in the year before Franklin Roosevelt's administration undertook the New Deal.