Zinn Education Project Back to School Kit
Tools for bringing people's history to the classroom

Register
Access hundreds of teaching activities
- Teaching activities
- Rich database
- News and updates

Share
Tell friends, colleagues, and students

Visit
Find us at upcoming conferences

Like
"This Day in People's History" posts and news
Check out the list of educator conferences across the country.

Join more than 207,000 people receiving "This Day in People's History" posts. Need classroom-friendly Facebook access? Click here.

Download
Popular teaching activities

The People vs. Columbus, et al.

U.S. Mexico War: "We Take Nothing by Conquest, Thank God"

Rethinking the U.S. Constitutional Convention: Land Mexico Lost to the U.S. A Role Play

The Power In Our Hands: A Curriculum on the History of Work and Workers in the United States

Read
Articles about what's missing from textbooks

The Real Irish American Story Not Taught in Schools

Who Stole Helen Keller?

Ten Things You Should Know About Selma Before You See the Film

A People’s History of Muslims in the United States

Lying to Children About the California Missions and the Indians

Rethinking Schools
Subscribe to the magazine

Teaching for Change
Best selection of multicultural books

A must-read for everyone involved in education

Carefully selected books for pre-K to adult on social justice issues

Teaching Guide

School Planner
A People's Curriculum for the Earth: Teaching Climate Change and the Environmental Crisis
Edited by Bill Bigelow and Tim Swinehart
Articles, student readings, and teaching activities to understand environmental problems and imagine solutions. Learn more.

Planning To Change the World: A Plan Book for Social Justice Teachers
By New York Collective of Radical Educators (NYCoRE)
Plan book designed to help teachers translate their vision of a just education into concrete classroom activities. Learn more.

If We Knew Our History Article
Voting Rights History Quiz

It's Constitution Day! Time to Teach Obedience or History?
By Bill Bigelow
Teaching about the Constitution requires a critical and nuanced exploration—one that is alert to the race and class issues at the heart of our governing document. Read more.

Voting Rights Act History Quiz

Happy birthday, Howard Zinn!
The Value of Skepticism and Breaking Down Barriers with Students
August 24 would have been Howard Zinn's 93rd birthday. On this occasion, we share this excerpt about how Zinn built trust with students. He recalls "by showing them that outside the classroom I was not retreating into my home and my study.... I was involved in the social struggle that related to their lives. And when they decided to participate in this struggle...I was with them, I was walking on picket lines with them, I was engaging in demonstrations with them, I was sitting in with them. And that, more than anything, created an atmosphere of trust, of democracy in our relationship." Continue reading.

Support the Zinn Education Project

Show your support...with a sticker or a button!
Now available for a $15 donation
Donate $15 and receive a sticker or a button. Donate at a higher level, and receive bundles to share with friends and colleagues. Donate now!

Other donation options:

PAYPAL
Donations can now be made through PayPal.

DONATE MONTHLY
Sign up to support the Zinn Education Project throughout the school year.

The goal of the Zinn Education Project is to introduce students to a more accurate, complex, and engaging understanding of United States history.

www.zinnedproject.org

© 2015 The Zinn Education Project, a collaboration of rethinking schools and Teaching for CHANGE.

Email Sponsored By:
The Constant Contact Cares for Kids program supports youth oriented nonprofit organizations. Learn more about the Cares for Kids program.